AGREEMENT OF UNDERSTANDINGS

(For present and prospective volunteers of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center)

- I. What Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center and the Board of Directors are asking of you:
 - A. That you will read and become familiar with your Job Description and Duties assigned as a volunteer and do your best to fulfill the expectations.
 - B. You will make every effort to be active and productive on the committee you are volunteering for.
 - C. You will seek to know and accept responsibilities assigned and adhere to the policies and expectations of the event. You will feel morally responsible for the health and well being of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center as an organization and you will do everything you can to help carry out the Mission of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center as written in the Mission Statement.
 - D. That you will give of your time and dedication to the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center within the limits of your ability. It is understood that various volunteers have widely varying abilities in these two areas and that no one will presume to tell you what you should do in determining the amount and nature of the contributions you make.
 - E. That you will help in fundraising for the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center in whatever ways are best suited for you, and which best meet the needs of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center.
 - F. That you will attend Committee meetings and various Center meetings to the best of the limits of your available time.
 - G. That you understand that being a volunteer of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center is a statement of faith in the mission and purpose of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center, and that all volunteers and members are trusting one another to carry out agreed upon tasks to the best of their ability, each in their own way, with knowledge, approval, and support of all.
 - H. That you will take part in at least one area needed.
- II. What you have a right to expect of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center, the other volunteers and the Board of Directors:
 - A. That you will be given all information you need to carry out your agreed upon responsibilities.
 - B. That your time and other contributions will be recognized as being valuable and with finite limits, so that unreasonable or petty requests will not be made of you.
 - C. That other volunteers of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center will seriously listen to your comments, concerns and suggestions.

- D. That you will be given full support to do the things you are asked to do within the limits of the budget and the time available upon the part of staff and other volunteers.
- E. That you be given sufficient orientation, training and expectations as a volunteer and understand the essentials of the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center programs and policies as well as the duties of being a volunteer.
- F. That I will hold confidential certain information I learn about the Antelope Valley G.L.B.T. Community Center, its volunteers, staff, etc., that I may learn while acting as a volunteer. This should include sensitive organization information, personnel matters, volunteer names and addresses, any other information that is stated to be confidential during any committee meeting.

I have read the Agreement of Understandings and will make every effort to abide by them.
